Hale High School

As the events of the Indians' lives were recorded in pictorial form with the beads of their wampum — so the events of Hale High are recorded in our . . .

WAMPUM

NEW HORIZONS

In Such An Age

To be alive in such an age !
With every year a lightning page ,
Turned in The world's great wonder-book ,
Whereon the leaning nations look ,
Where men speak strong for brotherhood
for peace and universal good ;
When miracles are every where ,
And every inch of common air
throbs a tremendous prophecy
Of greater marvels yet to be .
O, thrilling age !
O, willing age !

DEDICATION

Because he has quietly given direction, devotion, assurance, and stability to students and faculty of George B.S. Hale High School, we do lovingly and gratefully dedicate this 1974 Wampum to 'our Principal,' Mr. Thomas Smith.

ALWAYS THERE . . .

"You Seniors have nothing to worry about, we've already ordered the caps and gowns so we HAVE to get you out of here."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

- I, Bill Joyce, leave all my tardies to the Juniors.
- I, Susan Lane, leave my good grades to Andy Smetana.
- I, Eve Weathers, leave my exceptionally quick movement and my extra ordinary mind to the Science Department.
- I, Annette McPeters, leave my lollipop to Wes, and grades to Pat Joyce, she needs them.
- I, Lynn McNabb, leave all my basketball points to Larry McCoy.
- I, Paschall Massengill, leave my hair to Father Hale.
- I, Jenny Foster, leave my coffee to Mrs. Carter.
- I, Jeff Robinson, leave my snow machine to the freshmen boys of Hale High.
- I, Doris Dean, leave my long brunette hair to Ann Pickard, and to any person who wants the job of editor next year.
- I, John Simpson, leave to Susan Sciabarasi, the only true Italian in the school, his "outstanding nose."

As a class, being of sound mind, we hereby leave the fine reputation that our class earned, memories of 180 parties held during the 73-74 school year, and the Senior Lounge to the junior class, and to our beloved homeroom teacher, Mrs. Carter, we leave a fifth of vodka.

GYM DEDICATION

On November 1, our Gym Dedication was held. The Soccer Coach of Cambell College, Mr. James Cole spoke. At the conclusion, Father Hale put the "Hex of Hale" on our gym.

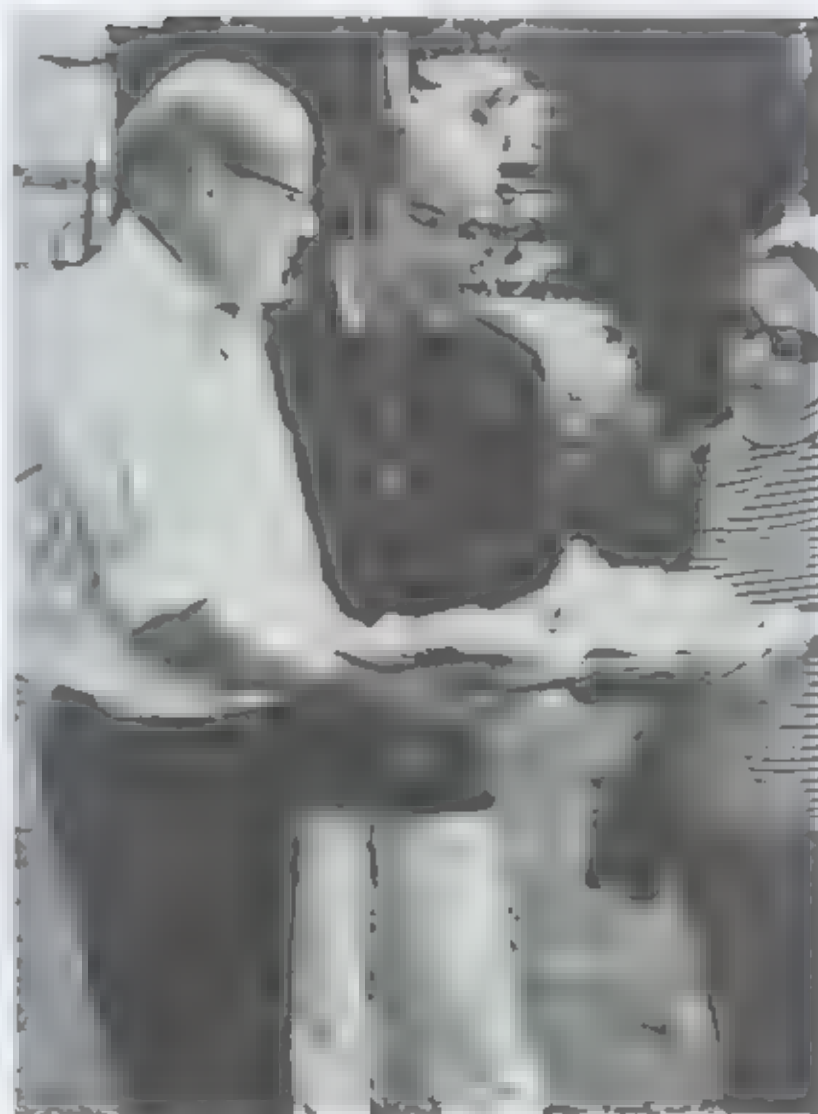

This was the second annual basketball game between the WKIX Cagers and the Hale High Faculty. The Hale win was a proper beginning for our new gym.

GYM FAIR

Thus, our 3rd annual Gym Fair, was again an event enjoyed by all who were involved. As a result of the hard work and fun, over $4,000 was made for St. Timothy's and Hale High.
